US LABOR AGAINST THE WAR CALL TO ACTION

Make March 12 a LABOR DAY FOR PEACE

The Bush Administration is threatening to launch the war in Iraq by mid-March, despite massive domestic and international opposition. On February 27, the AFL-CIO issued a statement opposing a military attack on Iraq, stating that the president has failed to make a compelling and coherent case for military action.

US LABOR AGAINST WAR IS CALLING ON ALL UNIONS AND TRADE UNIONISTS WHO ARE OPPOSED TO THIS WAR TO ENGAGE IN WORKPLACE-BASED ANTI-WAR ACTIVITIES ON MARCH 12. This should be a broad locally-based protest and educational effort that could include workplace leaflets, buttons, bumper stickers, letters and petitions to Congress, lunch-time meetings and discussions, as well as meetings at union halls and other locations.

THIS "LABOR DAY FOR PEACE" WILL OCCUR JUST PRIOR TO THE NEXT LARGE NATIONAL DEMONSTRATIONS SCHEDULED FOR MARCH 15 IN WASHINGTON, DC, SAN FRANCISCO AND OTHER CITIES. Union activities on the 12th can help build labor participation in those events.

USLAW will work with others in the labor movement to develop materials for these activities. We welcome ideas, suggestions and volunteers.
